

SOLUTION OVERVIEW

FTSE China Equity Indices

Overview

FTSE Russell offers a broad range of indices that represent the breadth and depth of China's evolving equity market. Developed through years of experience measuring the progress of mainland China, indices that represent the opportunity set from either a domestic or international perspective are available.

A broad range of indices to represent China's equity market

SHARE CLASS INDICES

Indices for every Chinese share class (A Shares, B Shares, H Shares, Red Chips, P Chips, S Chips and N Shares).

COMPOSITE INDICES

Indices that combine Chinese share classes and/or Hong Kong and Taiwan stocks.

DERIVED INDICES

Indices that incorporate criteria such as ESG or economic exposures.

Coverage of China A Shares in global equity benchmarks

China A Shares available via the Northbound China Stock Connect route are currently eligible for FTSE Russell's flagship global equity benchmarks, the FTSE Global Equity Index Series (FTSE GEIS).

The FTSE Global China A Inclusion Index Series provides extended coverage of China A Shares by also including China A Shares available through QFII and RQFII programs.

Features and benefits

Comprehensive and flexible

- Single share class and composite indices
- Size and sector segments
- Differentiated domestic investor and international investor versions
- Market cap-weighted benchmarks and derived indices

Accessible

- Minimum size, liquidity and free float tests are applied to ensure investability
- Foreign ownership limits and/or market access constraints are incorporated where relevant

Rigorously maintained

Semi-annual reviews, daily corporate actions, quarterly IPO inclusions and share adjustments ensure that the indices accurately represent the true opportunity set

Transparency and governance

Managed according to publicly available transparent ground rules, and in accordance with FTSE Russell's global best practice standards of index governance
